What people say about Online Market World

"Doba considers Online Market World a must-attend event because it will help attendees with varying levels of expertise understand the many e-commerce-related issues that will affect their businesses over time, and that will help them create and maintain a competitive edge."

- Jeremy Hanks
CEO, Doba

Bill Ryan, Executive Vice President

Sweet and Baker Insurance

Bill Ryan joined Sweet and Baker Insurance Brokers as a producer in 1998 and became a joint owner in 2000. He has 14 years experience in the insurance industry, primarily focused on property and casualty commercial business. Since joining the firm, Mr. Ryan has helped quadruple the commercial department's revenues. He is currently serving on the board of directors of Insurance Brokers and Agents of the West (IBA West). Over the years, Mr. Ryan has also served as the vice president and president of the San Francisco chapter.

Prior to joining Sweet and Baker, Mr. Ryan produced commercial accounts for Calco Insurance Brokers, Inc. (a division of California Casualty) and Diversified Risk Insurance Brokers. He is a member of The Guardsmen, a non-profit organization dedicating its resources and time to under-privileged children in the Bay Area. Mr. Ryan graduated in 1989 from Menlo College with a bachelor of science in Business Administration. He started and played wide receiver on the football team for 4 years.
